Anymatic LLC: Design & Production Manager

Santa Monica, CA
March 2009 - Present

Anymatic LLC is a custom sportswear company currently creating yoga mats, boardshorts, bikinis, and athletic tees. I have been the designer and manager responsible for new products from conception through design and production to customer feedback. Intimately involved in the design, production, launch, management and maintenance of Shortomatic and Vans custom boardshorts. Managed the production and fulfillment for all products from Yogamatic and Shortomatic. Designed and produced all types of advertisement and media for packaging, web, social network, and web videos. Managed, maintained, updated, and created new content for Yogamatic, Shortomatic, Kinimatic, and Shirtomatic websites. I have designed special one-of-a kind designs for many celebrities including a yoga mat for Oprah Winfrey and Jennifer Aniston, shorts for Tom Ford, and bikinis for Leila Hurst.

Chameleon Images Inc.: Graphic Designer

Studio 495: Graphic Designer

CSUF
Jan. 2007 - Dec. 2007

Studio 495 is an internship for CSUF. As an intern for the university we created posters for the theater, art catalogs for master student expositions, university catalogs and phone books, and exhibit designs. In a team of 30 we created designs as well as competed to have our designs published. I won the honor to design and have published the 50th Anniversary Spring 2008 catalog cover, 2 theatrical posters, 2 art exhibit posters, and the catalog for the Humana Ex Mechina exhibit.

Freelance: Graphic Designer

Bellflower, CA
Jan. 2005 - Dec. 2006

Throughout the year I helped many small businesses solve graphical problems. I created direct mailing advertisement, complete company identity packages, full tradeshow exhibits, slideshow presentations, and package designs.
